Low & Basic High Element Challenge Course Instructor Development Program 2021

Vestals Gap Ventures offers a number of five-day Challenge Course Instructor Training programs each year. Programs are held near Knoxville, MD and are divided into two sections—Low Challenge Course elements the first two days and Basic High Challenge Course elements the following three days. Trainings are conducted from 8:00am until 5:00pm daily. Accommodations are readily available nearby and VGV can assist you with lodging recommendations. Travel directions and further details are available upon registration. The low session costs $350.00 per instructor candidate and the high session costs $525.00 per instructor candidate, or a discounted cost of $825.00 per instructor candidate for consecutive low/high sessions. If taking Low and High training in consecutive sessions, an ACCT Level 1 Certification can be earned. Advance registration and payment are required and space is limited.
